

E-activity 7

Task 2

Asset tracking. If every item produces contained a RFID there would be no need for bar codes because you would be able to scan them with some other type of software.

Task 3

Cloud computing - An internet based computing in large groups of remote servers are networked to allow the centralized data storage.

Cloud storage – A type of storage that is accessible from anywhere as long as you have an internet connection.